

Veteran Construction Career Pathway Program

On July 27th, 2017 South Bay One Stop Business and Career Centers – Inglewood, Construction and Utilities Pathway Program (CUPP) in partnership with Kiewit hosted the first of what is expected to be recurring information sessions for Veterans interested in pursuing construction careers with the Los Angeles Football Stadium and Entertainment District at Hollywood Park project.

Background

As one of the largest and most respected construction, mining and engineering companies operating in North America and Australia, Kiewit offers construction and engineering services in a variety of markets including transportation, water/wastewater, power, oil, gas and chemical, building and mining. Consistently ranked in the top five among top 400 contractors, Kiewit works on a variety of multi-million to multi-billion dollar projects including the Los Angeles Football Stadium and Entertainment District at Hollywood Park. The NFL stadium is expected to cost approximately $2.5 billion and is part of a broader 298-acre mixed-use development plan, which includes retail space, a performance venue and a hotel. The new stadium is expected to bring an economic boom to the Inglewood community by creating thousands of onsite construction jobs and ancillary jobs through local hiring initiatives.

Commitment to Hiring Veterans

Kiewit is committed to providing opportunities, training and support to United States military men and women as they transition to civilian life and recognize their unique skill sets and aptitudes for successful careers in the construction and engineering industry. Key elements such as determination, focus on objectives, planning, quality and the safety of those you serve with make Veterans ideal candidates for Kiewit. South Bay One Stop Business and Career Centers – Inglewood, Construction and Utilities Pathway Program (CUPP) in partnership with Kiewit by means of Veterans Employment-Related Assistance Program (VEAP) and 25% Special Assistance grants will introduce Veterans to Construction Career Pathways.

At no cost, eligible Veterans will receive employment and training assistance including:

- ✓ Construction Career Pathway Session
- ✓ Individualized Employment Plan
- ✓ Information on registering with local Unions and Apprenticeship Programs
- ✓ Information on Pre Apprentice Training Partners and Industry Certifications
- ✓ Introduction to Jobs Coordinators, Partnering Contractors, Developers, & Owner/Agencies
- ✓ Supportive Services

Through a continued commitment to Veteran hiring initiatives, this partnership aims to make a positive impact on the Los Angeles Football Stadium and Entertainment District at Hollywood Park project and the communities we serve. Interested Veterans may call (310) 680-3761 to schedule an appointment.
