

California Registered Nurse Specialty Apprenticeship Program

Are you a recent Nurse Graduate looking for experience?

Join the California Registered Nurse Specialty Apprenticeship Program, a unique 12-month Transition to Practice Program offered through HealthImpact-California's Action Coalition and Nursing Workforce Center

The Program provides new graduate nurses and experienced RNs transferring to a new position in Ambulatory Care practice specialty:

- A structured transition to professional practice, rooted in building skills necessary to succeed in ambulatory care.
- Expert faculty who help foster, mentor and guide professional practice through evidence-based practice and theory.
- Unique access to a regional community of peer support and ambulatory care leaders throughout the state of California.

Program Highlights

- Accreditation - Approved by the California Department of Apprenticeship Standards
- Learning Strategies - Instruction incorporates online synchronous zoom workshops with real-world clinical application and hands on training.
- Curriculum - Provides 260 Hours of "related supplemental instruction" that supports the new graduate nurse in their new full-time ambulatory role.
- Faculty Support - Program faculty ratio of 10:1 allows for dedicated 1:1 coaching, mentoring and professional development.
