Success Stories

Kamika Franklin

- Mother of two children, ages five & one
- Was homeless before enrolling with the Enhanced Transitional Subsidized Employment (E-TSE) program
- Was referred for Dress for Success & Blueprint training
- Employed at Goodwill in Workforce Career Development & was quickly recommended for a Job Coach position

"I'm very grateful for the E-TSE program because it helped me gain more knowledge and experience and find a job."

Remedios Barrera

- Single mother of two young children and recovering from substance abuse
- Was homeless, living in a shelter before entering the E-TSE program
- Receiving services from CHIRLA and El Nido Family Center
- Working at UAW-Labor Employment and Training Corporation

"The E-TSE Program is truly an amazing experience. Through the program I was able to re-enter the workforce, using my previous experience and getting hands-on training in a job setting where I feel comfortable. It allows me to re-learn how to perform in a work environment."
